WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight. Tuesday increasing cloudiness and warmer; light variable winds.

Alleged Forged Check.

Early Saturday night a stranger, apparently a young man and rather engaging in conversation, went to the parsonage of St. Mary's Church and introduced himself to Rev. Father Cutler as James Bradley, of Boston. He said he had a check in his favor for $250 drawn by Robert Porter, and the banks having closed during the day until Tuesday, he found himself in a difficulty, having no ready money and desiring to leave the city on one of the night trains. He suggested that he would turn the check over to Father Cutler on the payment of $200, the remaining $50 to be used for religious or charitable purposes. Father Cutler not having the amount at hand, declined the proposition, when the stranger in the course of a conversation which followed asked for a letter of introduction to Ahern Bros. Father Cutler declined to give him such a letter alleging that he did not know him. Bradley subsequently left the parsonage and later appeared at Ahern Bros. store where he presented a letter of introduction purporting to have been given by Father Cutler. The stranger then repeated in substance the story he had told at the parsonage with a supplemental part to the effect that he was well acquainted with Father Cutler, who was always a welcome visitor to his home in Boston. He wanted Mr. Ahern to give him $225 on the check and to devote the remaining $25 to charitable purposes. Mr. Ahern soon sized up the individual as an impostor and forger, and told him his impressions. Bradley then wanted to leave but every endeavor was made, except recourse to force, to keep him in the store until a policeman could be found. He left, however, before one could reach the store.

Fined for Trespass.

Two men living in the southeastern section of the city were arrested early Saturday night by Officer Nicholson charged with taking coal belonging to Mr. DeW. Aitchison from cars on Union street, near Duke. A bag of coal, supposed to belong to one of the men, was subsequently found in a nearby alley. The case came before the Mayor this morning when the officer testified to capturing one of the men on a car while he was throwing lumps into the street. The other, he said, jumped from a car and he fired his pistol in order to make him halt. The accused in their defense disclaimed any intention of stealing and both said they knew nothing of the bag which had been found. They were, they claimed, engaged in what many others had recently been doing—gathering what the railroad company and coal dealers left in cars. They asserted that they were merely reconnoitering or examining the cars in order to see if there were any gleanings. The Mayor, in summing up the case, said the accused were guilty of trespass, and fined them $5 each for their offense. This action will doubtless prove a deterrent to many who invade cars in the capacity of gleaners. Hereafter the railway company has taken no measures to prevent the practice, and men, women and children of both colors have been gathering the small quantities of coal left in cars.

Will Live in Havana.

Mr. Harry E. Swan, who held responsible positions with the military government in Cuba during the period (three years and a half) of American intervention, and who was one of the few trusted employees selected to accompany General Wood and his staff to Washington last May, upon the evacuation of the island, has resigned his position with the government in Washington and returned, with his family, to Havana, where he has made an advantageous business connection. In November last, when General Bliss was named as a special envoy to Cuba to negotiate a treaty of reciprocity, he took Mr. Swan with him as his private secretary, and it was while upon this mission that he determined upon Havana as his future home. Mr. Swan is a nephew of the editor of the Spirit of Jefferson, and will be remembered by many Charles Town people as a former employee of this office. We wish for him all possible success in the Pearl of the Antilles.—(Charles Town, W. Va., Spirit of Jefferson.)

Mr. Swan is a brother of Messrs. C. B. and W. E. Swan, of the firm of Swan Bros., in this city.

Facilities Not Satisfactory.

A letter from King George county to the Fredericksburg Star says: "The shipping and travelling facilities on the Potomac are poorer just now than for many years. There is but one steamer plying between the Northern Neck and Washington, and some of the trips by this boat are made only in the night time. This schedule makes it necessary for our people to do their travelling and shipping on Sundays, if done at all, because it is hardly possible at this season of the year to haul and travel long distances to the wharves in the night time. Since all the river boats have been owned and controlled by one company, there has been no opposition or competition on this route, and, as a result, the facilities and accommodations are unsatisfactory. It is reported that a number of prominent business men are planning to put an independent steamer on this line in the coming spring. It is said that sufficient capital can be raised to buy a suitable steamer."

Sharps and Flats.

The forthcoming production by "Sharps and Flats" of the "Little Tycoon" is looked forward to with much interest by the music-loving people of the community. The cast selected, which is as follows, insures its success: Gen. Knickerbocker, Mr. Geo. H. Evans; Alvin Barry, Mr. M. Harry Stevens; Rufus Ready, Mr. Walter R. Birch; Lord Dolphin, Mr. Mahlon H. Janney; Teddy, Mr. Harry B. Cato; Custom House Officer, Mr. P. Downey; The Captain and Montgomery, Mr. M. L. Dinwiddie; Miss Hurricane, Miss Myra L. Cavalier; Dolly Dimple, Miss Anna Leadbeater; Dot, Miss Rebecca Barrett; Violet, Miss Mai R. Greenwell.

Cameron Run Club.

On Saturday, January 17, the house committee of the Cameron Run Club gave a donkey party at the club house. The tails of the donkey were sold for 25 cents each and prizes were given to the winners. The proceeds, which is a goodly sum, are for the purpose of buying a ping pong table and game for the club. A number of persons attended from Washington, Alexandria and Seminary Hill. The prizes were won by Miss Barrett, Miss Henry, Mr. Stewart and Mr. Hooff. Tea was served all afternoon in the tea room, which was artistically decorated in Japanese style.

Fined Ten Dollars Each.

A white and colored woman, two young white men and a colored man were before the Mayor this morning charged with indecent and disorderly conduct. They were fined $10 each. The circumstances in connection with the case were gross and one of the white prisoners, suffering from the mortification of the expose, wept considerably. His experience as well as that of his companion may or may not prove a beacon in future, but that it should be apparent to all who observed his and plight this morning.

Held for the Fairfax Authorities.

Lena Roberts, the young woman arrested Saturday by Officers Lyles and Mayhew charged with having in her possession a watch and other articles belonging to Mr. Brown's family, living near Hunter's Mill, Fairfax county, was brought before the Mayor this morning. Her statement was in substance as that given by her when arrested. She burst into tears while in the dock and was conducted to an adjoining room. If the Fairfax authorities fail to send for her, she will be allowed to return to Washington.

The Weather and the River.

The cold weather of last night froze the river from shore to shore again. The Norfolk steamer Newport News, which arrived about seven o'clock this morning, cleared a track which started the ice on a move and later other steamers and tugboats with their paddle wheels and propellers broke most of it into small fragments which moved up and down with the tide. The Newport News reported passing several oyster vessels on their way up the river.

Funeral of the Late I. W. Rudd.

The funeral of the late Isaac W. Rudd, whose death occurred last Friday night, took place from his former residence, 125 south Fairfax street, this afternoon. R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, of which organization the deceased was a member, escorted the remains to the cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church. A large number of the friends and acquaintances of the family attended the funeral.

General Lee's Birthday.

Today has been a general holiday in Virginia, and in this city the banks and public and private schools were closed. There was no general celebration of the day, although many observed it as a holiday in a quiet manner. As has been its custom since its organization, R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans will give its annual banquet tonight, one of the prominent features of which will be the delivery of eulogies on the illustrious chieftain.

Fire This Afternoon.

Shortly before four o'clock this afternoon fire was discovered in the house occupied by Mrs. Virginia Arnold, northwest corner of Wilkes and Fairfax streets. Fire extinguishers were introduced and the fire was partially under control when the apparatus reached the scene. Some damage was done. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mrs. Arnold was not at home when it broke out.

Banquet To-Night.

All the arrangements have been made for the banquet to be given to-night by R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, and an enjoyable time is anticipated. The banquet will be held in Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street. As has heretofore been announced, Senator Berry and other well-known orators will be present.

Result of Advertising.

The M. Schuler Meat Company on Saturday last retailed 196 packages of Malta-Vita as a result of an advertisement in the Gazette. Malta-Vita is the product of the Pure Food Company of Battle Creek, Mich., and is rapidly growing in favor among housekeepers.

Personal.

Col. F. L. Smith, who has been confined to his home for the past two weeks with a severe cold, is able to be about again. Dr. Louis S. Greene and bride have returned from their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Street and their daughter, Miss Florence Street, of St. Louis, were the guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson. Mrs. Street is a daughter of the late Charles Miller, of this city. Miss Mary Custis Lee, who has been the guest of Mrs. P. T. Yettman for the past few days, went to Washington today, where this evening she will present crosses of honor to a number of Confederate veterans now living in that city. Rev. David Faustus Wardlaw, Mrs. Ward are visiting Mrs. Ewing, on Prince street.

MEDICINAL.

PLAIN PROOF

What This Gentleman says is a Mere Statement of Facts.

No one can have any reason for dissenting from the particulars and proofs which follow, for verification of the same is within easy reach of every resident of this vicinity. That Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and effectually cure kidney complaints is substantiated not only in this particular case, but by all who have given them a fair trial. Testimony likewise shows that you do not have to take them indefinitely to be cured.

Walter McLachlin, a machine hand, employed at J. Holliday & Sons planing mill, Wheeling, W. Va., address 3632 Jacob street, says: "I had not used Doan's Kidney Pills when I did I would not be alive now. I was in a terrible condition, and although I took quarts of medicine I got no better, but worse. Friends spoke of my bad appearance and thousands knew about it. I could hardly get around, and felt and looked like a dead man more than a living one. Doan's Kidney Pills were a blessing to me, half a box relieved me, three boxes entirely cured me and now I feel as though my back was as strong as that of any horse in Wheeling. I would rather have a box of Doan's Kidney Pills than the services of all the doctors in the State."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

The Monument.

All night the waking lamps burn Around the priceless stone— The silent soldier still maintains His sorrow, all alone. The morn' awakes, the sunrise breaks Over the eastern lands— With folded arms and downcast eyes, The silent soldier stands. All day below life's currents flow And trade the street commands— Yet, still unmoved, at glory's gate, The silent soldier stands. Why doth he wait at glory's gate And fail to enter in? He waits to lead true men from greed, Calm honor's heights to win. Lee Day, 1903. W. F. C.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Belle Haven Council, Junior Order of Mechanics, will hold a banquet at Mrs. A. Rammel & Son's restaurant tonight. Brenner & Knight have secured the contract for certain improvements in the City Engineer Dunn's office in the City Hall. Belle Haven Lodge, Knights of Honor, will hold their regular meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Pythian Hall, north Pitt street.

The flow of gas will be cut off from the works between 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. to-morrow in order that a new governor can be installed. Judge Barley today granted an amendment to the charter of "the Southern Expanded Metal Company" increasing the capital stock from $50,000 to $100,000.

The crane, it appears, was not stolen from the door of the late Isaac M. Rudd Friday night. It was found in the street by Joseph Mitchell, colored, and turned over to Officer Griffin. An ark belonging to Mr. Ernest O. Rammel, which was carrying live from its moorings in Blackberry cove, has been recovered, the tide having carried it in front of Mr. W. H. Snowden's farm.

The Presbytery of the Chesapeake will meet in the Second Presbyterian Church on Wednesday morning for the purpose of considering the movement for the establishment of another church in Washington. The remains of Sarah Phillips, colored, formerly of this city, who died in Norfolk a day or two ago, will reach here today on the steamer, and the funeral will take place from Demaine & Son's undertaking establishment in the afternoon.

The churches yesterday were well attended. The weather was clear and crisp, and after night the northwest wind gathered force when the temperature became colder. The services in the different churches were conducted according to the announcements in Saturday's Gazette.

Between six and seven o'clock Saturday night a young boy from his home in the boarded the north bound Quantico accommodation train on the Washington-Southern Railway at Cherry Hill and disembarked at Accotink. The object of the masquerade is unknown.

VENEZUELAN RETURN FIRE.—The German cruiser Panther shelled Fort San Carlos, at the entrance to Lake Maracaibo, Saturday afternoon for one hour. The fort returned the fire with four guns. The Panther withdrew in the direction of Curacao. Fort San Carlos is 22 miles from Maracaibo, and commands the entrance of the lake or inner bay. The correspondent of the Associated Press at Maracaibo has received the following letter from General Bello, the commander of the fort: "Saturday afternoon at 12:30 Fort San Carlos was attacked and shelled, without any provocation on our part, without previous notification or the delivering of an ultimatum, by the German cruiser Panther, which tried to force an entrance. After a fight lasting an hour, during which the fort used only four guns, the Panther was obliged to abandon the fight and retreated in the direction of Curacao. The fort has suffered no damage, and only three men were wounded."

DEATH OF ABRAHAM S. HEWITT.—Abram S. Hewitt, former mayor of New York and for many years one of its representatives in Congress, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, in his eighty-first year, after a critical illness of 10 days. Allied with the democratic party, he took an active interest in national and State affairs, and in 1874 was elected to Congress. With the exception of one term, he retained his seat in the House until 1886, when the more responsible position of mayor of New York city, to which he was elected in that year, placed him at the head of the metropolis. At the conclusion of his first year in Congress, in 1876, his position there won for him the chairmanship of the democratic national committee.

THE NORFOLK OFFICES.—Senator

Scott and Representative-elect Slomp of the ninth Virginia district had a conference with the President on Saturday regarding some Virginia appointments, and especially in regard to the collectorship of customs and postmaster at Norfolk. The President definitely decided that he would reappoint the incumbents of both these offices, and the nominations were sent to the Senate today. Maj. R. G. Banks is the collector of customs and Col. J. R. Waddy is the postmaster. The factional troubles between the Bowden-Agnew and Wise-Waddy elements of the Virginia party has been in progress over the officers. Maj. Banks is an adherent of the Bowden or organization faction, while Col. Waddy belongs to the other faction. The two offices have been under consideration by the President for some time.
